Overview

A dedicated Designer looking to achieve professional and personal success. I value time efficiency, hard work, and a positive work environment. I'm a leader and a social butterfly who enjoys new challenges and perspectives. I'm constantly trying to attain the most in life by achieving high grades, publications, exhibitions, and taking up additional responsibilities. I enjoy a variety of mediums and love Graphic Design because of its range of possibilities. I look forward to being a positive addition to your team!

Experience

Social Media Manager/Graphic Designer, Inkwell Booksellers

July 2025 - Present

I'm the dedicated in-house Graphic Designer and Social Media Manager. On average we have about 12-17 events per month that I create all the advertisements for, as well as online webpages/calendars. I also work as an Administrator where I'm in charge of replying to our general questions email and event inquiries. I also film and edit weekly reels and have created and printed a variety of in-store signs/infographics.

Graphic Designer, Slapstik Comedy Entertainment

Sep. 2024 - Dec. 2024

I worked alongside a team of five to create a variety of art, layouts, and articles to meet specific brand identity requirements for the Fall 2024 issue of Slapstik Magazine.

Graphic Designer/Barista, Xavier Artisan

Aug. 2023 - June 2025

I created a variety of branded content including menus, ads, flyers, product photography, social media posts, and signs that were shared with customers and the community. All while maintaining full time barista responsibilities.
